

Privacy Policy for Friends of the Newtown St Martin pub Ltd.

Friends of the Newtown St Martin pub Ltd is referred to as “the Society”.

1. What data do we collect?

Personal identification information (name, address, email address, telephone number, share certificate number, number of shares held, bank account number and sort code).

2. How do we collect your data?

You directly supply the Society with the data that we collect. We collect data and process data when you complete and submit a share application.

3. How will we use your data?

The Society collects your data so that it can: Maintain a list of its members and contact its members (either by email or conventional post) when the Directors believe that this is necessary. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Providing information about the financial status of the Society
- Offering new shares to members when they become available
- Notifying members of shareholder and other meetings
- Creating share certificates
- Maintaining a list of the number of shares owned by each member
- The Society will not share your data with other individuals or organisations.

4. How do we store your data?

The Society stores an electronic copy of your data as an Excel Spreadsheet. This spreadsheet is stored on a secure server and is accessible only by the Directors of the Society.

5. Marketing

Your data will not be used for marketing purposes beyond those in 3 (How will we use your data), above. The Society will not share your data with other individuals or organisations unless legally required to do so. You can request a copy of all your personal data that we hold at any time by emailing: princeofwalesnewtownstmartin@gmail.com

6. What are your data protection rights?

Every member of the Society is entitled to the following: The right to access: You have the right to request the Society for copies of your personal data. The right to rectification: You have the right to request the Society to correct any information you believe is inaccurate. You also have the right to request the Society to complete information you believe is incomplete. The right to erasure: You
